

KBCS Quarterly Issues/Program Report

3rd Quarter (July thru September) 2017

Issue	Segment Title	Description	Program	Date	Time	Duration
Arts & Culture	Sarah Vaughan	highlights of various aspects of Vaughan's career and value systems she shared	Thom Hartmann Program	7/5/17	11:30am	3:32
	Seattle's Hai Japantown Celebration	A interview on the International District's Japantown Celebration	Morning Blend	8/25/17	11:30am	1:17
	Charleena Lyles Healing Ceremony	A feature on how a neighborhood tries to heal after the tragedy of Charleena Lyle's shooting	Morning Blend	7/11/17	11:30am	3:08
Civil Rights	Mexican Independence Day	Listen to a Professor of Hispanic studies describe the beginnings of Mexican Independence Day	Thom Hartmann Program	9/14/17	11:30am	5:42
	Disability Independence	A conversation on civil rights wor advocacy among the disabled community	Thom Hartmann Program	7/25/17	11:30am	5:47
	Know Your Rights Workshop	ED of Northwest Immigrant Rights Project shares information for immigrants on their rights if ICE shows up at your door	Thom Hartmann Program	7/3/17	11:30am	6:48
Economics & Finance	How Local College Students Pay for School	A voxpop of students at Bellevue College and how they're paying for their education	Thom Hartmann Program	8/2/17	7:55am	4:02
	Black Wall Street	The history of Black Wall Street and the fate of the successful black business community in Tulsa, Oklahoma	Thom Hartmann Program	8/31/17	7:50am	11:10
	Yes Magazine Rural Businesses	A look at what small businesses in rural areas are doing to revive or stabilize their economies	Thom Hartmann Program	7/26/17	11:30am	5:17
Environment	Muskrat	A naturalist's guide to the local muskrat	Thom Hartmann Program	8/21/17	11:30am	4:19
	Yes Magazine West Coast Activism regarding the fossil fuel industry	An illustration of west coast activism and its importance in determining the future of the fossil fuel industry	Thom Hartmann Program	7/19/17	11:30am	6:12
	Unmute the Commute - Building a House By Bike	A highlight of a man who built his own home. All the materials he used were transported by bike.	Thom Hartmann Program	7/24/17	11:30am	6:17
General Politics	Initiative 27: The safe injection ban and its counter argument	A piece which highlights opposing perspectives on safe injection sites which have been approved in King County	Thom Hartmann Program	9/21/17	11:30am	5:22
	DACA Repeal Effects	A discussion on how the DACA Repeal may influence our country's discourse on immigration reform	Thom Hartmann Program	9/8/17	11:30am	7:41

	Norm Stamper on the push to provide more military weapons and gear to our local police	An interview with former Seattle Police chief, Norm Stamper on the latest push further militarization of local police units	Thom Hartmann Program	9/1/17	7:45am	4:50
Health Care	Our region's opioid crisis	UW researcher's breakdown of the opioid crisis in our region and what interventions are implemented. In addition, a comparison with Vancouver, British Columbia	Thom Hartmann Program	9/15/17	11:30am	12:21
	Food in Motion	Ways that Seattle area non-profits are striving to feed those most in need with nutritionally dense, salvaged organic foods,	Thom Hartmann Program	8/25/17	11:30am	6:30
	Valerie Galmish, the school lunch lady	A highlight of a lunch lady at a local high school and the impact she can make on student's lives	Thom Hartmann Program	7/6/17	11:30am	4:44
Immigration	Lawsuit Against the NW Detention Center	an update on the lawsuit against the GEO group who operates the NW Detention Center	Morning Blend	9/21/17	11:30am	4:32
	Food Carts at El Centro De La Raza	A feature on the food cart development program at El Centro	Thom Hartmann Program	8/1/17	11:30am	4:08
	Yes Magazine Sanctuary Panel	A series of recordings from YES! Magazine's Sanctuary Event	Thom Hartmann Program	8/15/17	7:50am	5:52
Race, Sexuality, LGBTQ, Native Issues	DJ Burr Male Sexual Abuse Victims	An interview on DJ Burr's experience being sexually assaulted, and the path to recovery	Thom Hartmann Program	8/2/17	11:30am	14:32
	Sexual Abuse	An interview with sexual abuse survivor Kristen Clark about how sexual abuse is portrayed in the media	Thom Hartmann Program	8/14/17	11:30am	7:59
	De-escalate Washington Campaign	An interview with advocates for De-escalate Washington and what this legislation may mean, if passed	Thom Hartmann Program	7/28/17	11:30am	4:51